Awarded as the 2020 Savings & Loan Association of the Year, Group B

by the Alliance of Non-stock Savings and Loan Association, Inc. (ANSLI)

August 12, 2021

To: All PESLAI Members

Please be informed that starting August 2021 payroll, we shall resume to bill or deduct from payroll the original amount of your respective monthly capital contributions before the implementation of a uniform amount of Php200 contribution from March 2021 until July 2021.

However, we will peg a maximum of Php3,000 per month for members, including retirees, whose original capital contribution is more than said amount while the Association is still dealing with the excess liquidity concern. Furthermore, we shall not entertain in the meantime, any request for an increase of additional capital contribution until further advice.

For loan applications, either new or renewal, we still accept and process in advance scanned complete loan document requirements, by submitting to the PESLAI office address: peslainc@gmail.com. Original documents shall still be submitted to the PESLAI office later as required by BSP. Loan documents and forms, as well as the latest announcement, may be downloaded and viewed from our website: www.peslai.com.ph

Thank you and stay safe everyone!
